ERIE MEN IN REVOLT.

They Object to Platt Forcing Morton Upon Them as a Candidate.

WILL TRY TO DOWN THE BAR!

Placing of Haight for Judge of the Court of Appeals Does Not Appease Them.

RUMOR THAT BLISS WAS TO RUN.

The Boss, However, Has Things Moving Just About as He Wants Them.

(Special to The Evening World.) SARATOGA, Sept. 17.—Belated delegates who arrived this afternoon to take part in to-morrow's Convention, found themselves in a scene of great excitement, caused by the revolt of the Erie delegation.

The members, thirty-eight strong, met in caucus and unanimously declared against Platt and Morton.
They indignantly rejected the nomination of Haight, of Buffalo, for Judge of the Court of Appeals, as a sop to appease their anger, and decided to make a fight against Morton.

It was agreed that on first ballot the Erie County vote should be divided among Farnett, Russell, Stewart Woodford, of Brooklyn; Gen. Daniel Butterfield and Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York, and on second ballot the entire vote of the delegation is to be cast for the candidate developing the greatest strength against Morton.

Cornelius N. Bliss was told that there was his golden opportunity to strike death blow to Plattism if he would declare himself a candidate. Several of Mr. Bliss's influential friends, however, with him for two hours to induce him to come out against Morton. Somebody spread the report that Bliss had declared himself, and the wildest excitement prevailed.

Mr. Bliss could not be found, but Chairman Brookfield, one of his closest friends, put a quietus on the sensational rumor.

"Mr. Bliss," said Mr. Brookfield, "is not a candidate. He will be a candidate. I know it. A few of his friends in the New York delegation may vote for him, but that is all."

Mr. Brookfield was greatly pleased over the action of the Erie men. As Farnett will undoubtedly carry the county, the decision of the Erie men is practically in Farnett's favor.
He improves the report that Bliss had declared himself, and the wildest excitement prevailed.

For Governor, New York and Kings will vote for Morton by a large majority. One mathematician figure is that of 27 votes for Morton from New York and Kings.

Mr. Bliss has his headquarters in Cottage 7, of the United States Hotel.
There he sits and hears reports, all of which effect that he is in the center of the situation. But will he be sustained?

Many Republicans have misgivings about the action of the Erie men. They are not sure that the party will be helped by the defection of the Erie men. They are not sure that the party will be helped by the defection of the Erie men.

There is a deep rooted feeling of hate against Platt, however, and it is not believed that the nomination of Morton will be forced without a protest against the manner in which he was foisted on the party.

EXTRA.

ANTI-PLATT CONFERENCE.

The anti-Platt leaders held a conference last night and they figured that Morton did not have enough votes to be nominated. It was thought that some kind friend would give Mr. Farnett good advice, and that this morning he would announce a change of mind.

But this morning Mr. Farnett clung to his hope more tenaciously than ever.
"Make it as strong as language can make it," said he. "I am in the race to stay. My name is on the ticket. The Convention if I don't get more than one vote, and under no consideration will I be placed by accepting the nomination for Lieutenant-Governor. I want first place or none."

Charles M. Depew, who was relied upon to lead the opposition to Platt, has gone over to the Platt camp, too, and will place Morton in nomination.
Still, the anti-Platt do not seem to be discouraged.

What seems to inspire the anti-Platt with hope and courage is the talk of killing, usually indulged in by disappointed candidates and their friends. About a dozen misguided men started from home last night, and when they arrived here they found that the anti-Platt leaders were not so much as they had been.
The anti-Platt leader now is Thomas McNally Platt.

Among the victims are Col. Shaw, of Watertown; Milo M. Acker, of Horravit; Commodore P. Velder, of Catawagus; Arthur C. Wade, of Chautauque; Hamilton Fish, of Putnam; Isaac Baker, of Washington; Titus Sheard and Col. E. A. McAlpin.

Free Race for Lieutenant-Governor.
Mayor George W. Aldridge, of Rochester; Senator Charles E. Saxton, of Clyde, and Congressman Wadsworth, of Genesee, are still in the race. Platt's state contains the name of Wadsworth, but Mr. Platt insists that the Lieutenant-Governor contest continues open to all comers, and that the nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals is by no means settled either.

Col. S. R. Cruikshank started a boom for Saxton for Lieutenant-Governor in the New York delegation this morning.
Saxton, Wadsworth is a millionaire and with two millionaires the ticket would be weighted down too heavily, Col.
Cruikshank thinks.

If geographical locations are disregarded Justice Albert Haight, of Buffalo, will be named for Judge of the Court of Appeals. Wadsworth is from Livingston County, contiguous to Erie.
Wadsworth is the home county.

The supporters of Supreme Court Justice S. Alonzo Kellogg, of Plattsburgh, argue that if the Lieutenant-Governor goes to the western part of the State, and the nominee for Governor comes from Dutchess, in the eastern part of the county, the northern section should be given recognition, and Kellogg nominated.

Haight is Platt's Favorite.
Kings County has a candidate for Judge, in the person of Jesse Johnson.
He has been nominated by the Platt men. They think his nomination would place the anti-Platt in a bad position. They think his nomination would place the anti-Platt in a bad position.

Summed up, the situation at noon today is that the anti-Platt leaders will be chosen for first and second place. The anti-Platt leaders will be chosen for first and second place.

for first and second place.

Denies All Knowledge of the Ingenious Fire Machine.

The Fire Marshal, However, Says He Has Proof Against Him.

Michael De George, the real estate and insurance agent, of 33 Liberty street, who is under arrest, charged with attempted arson, pleaded not guilty before Justice Simms in the Essex Market Police Court this morning. His examination was adjourned until late this afternoon, to allow him to communicate with his counsel, Assemblyman William Sulzer.

Fire Marshal Mitchell said to-day that he had been told by De George that he had been shadowed by the Mafia for RAN AWAY WITH A TRAMP.

Police Looking for Young Claude Spayd, of Wilkesbarre.

Supt. Byrnes to-day received a letter from Dr. C. W. Spayd, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., stating that his fifteen-year-old son, Claude, had run away from home with a tramp, and taken passage on some southbound steamer.

The tramp is about forty years old, deaf and blind in one eye.

AGAINST THE PULLMANS.
Attorney-General Maloney, of Illinois, Files His Information.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The Pullman quo-warranto proceedings were brought today by Attorney-General Maloney, of Illinois, filed his information against the Pullman company without objection from counsel.

The Court allowed the defendants twenty days, making the answer returnable on Oct. 2.

OFF FOR THE CONVENTION.
The Grand Central Station was crowded all morning with delegates, friends of delegates and the rank and file of organizations anxious to make a showing at Saratoga. The enthusiasm was of the liveliest kind and cheers for Morton were heard on every side. No one seemed to care, outwardly at least, to have a friend.

Very few of the big guns were left over from Thursday. Friday and Saturday last week, so that familiar faces were not seen this morning. There were some of the left-overs, however, who did not think it beneath their dignity to go up with the common herd. Among them was John W. Aldridge, ex-Judge Robert Eisenhower, ex-Congressman Deyo, Dr. Scholer and Conrad Albright. They went up on the 9:30 o'clock train. About thirty delegates went with them.

The only uniformed corps to put in an appearance was the Lincoln Pioneers of the Eighth Assembly District. They were about sixty strong, and presented a neat appearance with their buff hats and Morton banners. Before the departure of the 10:40 train, a band of volunteers, who had been organized for the purpose, played a number of lovely airs.
The band also went along with the Pioneers to Saratoga to help make that place hot.

The officials of the Grand Central Station are satisfied that there will be a big rush in the afternoon. Trains will start for Saratoga at 1, 3:30 and 5:30 o'clock, and special cars will be attached to each. There will be no difficulty, however, in taking care of all who desire to go along.

Matilda Darling's Claim for Love

William G. Wood, Retired, Pleads Lack of Consideration.

for Diamonds, &c.

The denial of a motion by Justice Mc-Adam, in the Supreme Court, to-day to place on the "Short Cause" calendar the action of Darling against Wood, brought to light a most peculiar suit.

Matilda Darling, of 206 West Seventy-first street, brought the suit against William G. Wood, of 250 Lenox avenue, a wealthy retired business man, to recover $25,000 on a promissory note.

As a defense Wood sets up lack of a consideration in giving the note, and the plaintiff replies that the consideration was "love and affection."

As a further defense Wood alleges that he has spent much more than the $25,000 claim upon the plaintiff, in declares that between May 17 and Aug.
18, 1893, he spent $25,000 on presents given the plaintiff, $14,000 of which he says was for diamonds.

He says he has a further claim of $7,150 against the plaintiff for money advanced for carpets and furniture and in cash and spent in entertaining her.

BOSTON'S PROTEST OFFSET.

The Chicago-New York Extra Game of Aug. 18 Thrown Out.

(Special to The Evening World.) CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The following dispatch received by Capt. Ward late last night has tickled all the players and rooters.

Have fled protest with President Young.
He has notified President Hart of the Chicago Club and yourself. JOHN T. BULLARD.

This means that the game played at the Polo Grounds, Aug. 18, at 2 P. M., which was transferred from Chicago, will be thrown out just as the Louisiville game was when Boston finally filed a protest. It was a clever scheme of Ward's to offset the seeming loss of a victory over Louisville, as this first game with Chicago on Aug. 18 was lost.

The extra game with Chicago, Ward said this noon, will be played to-morrow, as he does not want to play two games Wednesday.

For the first time in this country Lord Hawke's team of amateurs opened the first match of their series with a combined team of all New York. There was a fair attendance of cricket enthusiasts, and the number materially increased as the day wore on.

BOWLED OUT BY COBB.
De Trafford a Victim on the First Ball Sent In.

Lord Hawke's Cricketers Sent to Bat First.

Wet Grounds at Livingston Favor the Bowlers.

(Special to The Evening World.)
LIVINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 17.—This morning when Lord Hawke's team of amateurs opened the first match of their series with a combined team of all New York. There was a fair attendance of
terially increased as the day wore on.

Realizing this, Capt. Payne, of the local team, after winning the toss, decided to let the visitors bat first. The wisdom of this was apparent, for Mr.
Cobb, who opened the bowling from east end, clean bowled C. E. De Trafford with the first ball.

The disposal of this crack raised the hopes of the local supporters, who snuffed victory from afar. Mordaunt followed and started the run getting with his initial ball, which he played up to the fence, and his partner, who followed him, immediately in singles.
A clean cut over slip's head by Hill, registered the first quartet of the game, setting up the board.

Three overs later he got the ex-Chicago through the slips for a triple.
Mordaunt followed with a single, and the next ball got up well on the shoulder of the bat and was returned to the bowler. The visitors were then 4-0.
The vacant wicket was occupied by C. W. Wright, hitting cementing the partnership with an anick to the boundary, which the batsman four runs.

The newcomers seemed not at home with Kelly for a time, but his partner kept the ball merrily careening over the greenward, driving Cobb to the boundary.

The latter came near getting revenge with the next ball, which grazed the top of the stump. With the score at the score, Wright beat his batsman on the ball.

At the west end Wright cut his fourth ball through the slips for 2, sending up 4. Cobb was bowling effectively until Hill spoiled his analysis by neatly playing a leg bye.

Capt. Payne delegated Wright to take the ball from Cobb at 4, his first two balls adding 4 byes to the score. The single by Wright off Brown, sent up the half century. Without any addition to the score, Wright beat his batsman on a well-pitched ball, which disturbed the equilibrium of his legs. The score was 10-0, and the visitors were 10-0.

Following it with a clean cut through slip's head by Wright for the same number. Tyers vs. Brown was the orler, at 40.

TO-MORROW.

The Doorkeeper Will Take Charge of the Convention.

(Special to The Evening World.) SARATOGA, Sept. 17.—There were not very many persons here this afternoon, despite the fact that the card was very attractive. The attendance was fair, however, considering it was the first day of a big race.

The weather was close and muggy and the track had apparently not been affected by the showers of last night.

The talent were called upon to pick the winner of a maiden race, the first event on the card. They did it very well, playing Kenna pretty heavily.

Kenna, cut loose from the others in the stretch and won hands down. Lam-bly landed Nicolini, an outsider, in second place. His finish was very weak, however. Enclancher was third. Ninvah, who was pacesetter on the stretch, went all to pieces when it came to a drive.

FIRST RACE.
Sweepstakes of $10 each, with $1,000 added, for maiden two-year-olds; selling, five furlongs.
Kenna, 107 (Stimé).....1-1 1/2 2 3 4 Nicolini, 109 (Lansy).....2-1 10-1 7 8

Ninvah, 95 (Stimé).....12-1 10-1 7 8

Ninvah cut out the running for three furlongs, closely attended by Kenna and Trenpenny. In the stretch Kenna cut loose and drew away, winning easily by three lengths from Nicolini, who was a neck from Enclancher. Time—1:20 1/2.
Mutuels paid: Straight, $15.00; place, $4.00; third, $2.00; Nicolini paid $17.50; third, $3.50; Enclancher paid $17.50; third, $3.50.

SECOND RACE.
Sweepstakes of $10 each, with $1,000 added, for three-year-olds and upward; selling, six furlongs.
Stardust, 109 (Hill).....1-1 1/2 2 3 4

Mendia, 104 (Stimé).....12-1 10-1 7 8

There was a great falling off in the books, only nine going on to do business, which was the smallest of the meeting.
Favorites have been winning here so frequently that the books are heavy with a neck from Derfaglia, who was so as to give more room for bettors and bookmakers.

Thomas F. Egan will not have charge of the bookmakers' supplies after today, as he was notified by the Jockey Club that unless he gave up this duty by noon he would be asked to supply the books on the Jockey Club's track, and he has decided to quit after to-day.

THIRD RACE.
Purse $200 for two-year-olds and upward; selling, five furlongs.
Stardust, 109 (Hill).....1-1 1/2 2 3 4 Derfaglia, 107 (Boggett).....2-1 10-1 7 8

Mendia, 104 (Stimé).....12-1 10-1 7 8

Star Actors assumed the task of pacemaker, leading the field to around the turn to the backstretch. There Kenna hied and pulled up. Nahma was going very well, but she was not able to give up her task at the far turn and Belvedere, Pocahontas and Lightfoot were in front of her. In a racing finish Lightfoot won by a head from Belvedere, who was a length and a half from the front of Belvedere.
Time—1:14.

Mr. Salisbury's suspension followed the action of the officials on the last
